

NHG Expectations Profile

Level: Senior Manager/Head of Service

Framework overview

The expectations framework details the expectations that we have of our staff in terms of behaviours and attitudes required for the different levels of role. We have five different levels, those being colleague, team manager, operations manager, senior manager/head of service and business director. The framework supports the delivery of our business plan, and our culture and values. We use the framework for recruitment, development, and career progression for all our staff.
